DEMANDS

That Will Be Made On King of England by Liberal Leaders.

Creation of Many New Peers Means Death For the Present Lords.

Victory at the General Election Seems Certain and Quick.

IRISH PARTY WILL GAIN SOME

In the event of a Liberal majority in Great Britain and Ireland, and it seems certain, the Liberal leaders will demand King Edward to create 550 Liberal Peers. At present there are only 618 members of the British House of Lords, but of these 550 are Tories. Hence it will become necessary for the Liberals to have a clear working majority. In other words it would mean that the present House of Lords would be dead and buried for all time.

This same situation occurred before, as every student of English Parliamentary history knows. When Lord Grey, the Liberal Prime Minister in 1832, proposed to put an end to the rotten borough system in England, which enabled towns with a population of half a dozen individuals under the control of the local Lord to send two members to the House of Commons, the House of Lords opposed the reform to the last, and Lord Grey had at last to threaten resignation unless the King of that day—King William IV.—gave him the promise to create as many peers as would enable him to have a majority. The Peers in face of the promise of the King to do so—climbed down and the reform bill was passed.

King William was a different sovereign from King Edward. William was an old sailor—without much intelligence. Trained in all the old regime of despotism, a German of the eighteenth century, he gave the promise only at the last moment and, so to speak, at the point of the bayonet. King Edward is a nineteenth century Englishman brought up in democratic surroundings, a splendid observer of the political and popular atmosphere—in other words, as good a politician as any man in his kingdom, and he will not even make an attempt to withstand the popular will or popular liberties.

It has become quite apparent that the most powerful men in the Asquith Cabinet are determined to interpret the coming election as a mandate to deal with the present powers of the House of Lords and to deal with them drastically. The Liberals will propose to substitute the suspensory for the absolute veto which the Lords now enjoy. That is to say, while it will still be in the power of the Peers to reject a measure on the same Parliament it will not be in its powers to reject it twice if the House of Commons should again send it up to the Lords. In other words the upper body can postpone but not defeat. The words of Lloyd-George and of several other Ministers during the recent debate mean also—when read between the lines—that the Ministers have received or are determined to receive from King Edward the promise of giving them the means of carrying out their programme.

Of course the election, if it ends in the destruction of the absolute veto of the House of Lords, must mean the early settlement of the home rule question. There is not a member of the present Liberal Ministry who is not a convinced home ruler. The one division of opinion between them and the ardent Irish Nationalist is that the English Liberal has to think primarily of the English Liberal and the Irish Nationalist solely of the Irish Nationalist opinion.

But apart altogether this has been the fundamental reason why home rule has not been carried in the present House of Commons, where there is a majority of nearly 300 in its favor. The Liberals knew that any bill they passed would be rejected by the House of Lords, and they dreaded the effect upon their position with their own followers—all clamoring for reforms—of their own—if they could be charged with wasting a session of Parliament in passing a measure which they knew was to be doomed in the House of Lords.

The Irish Parliamentary party can expect several gains in Ireland. Alderman Cotton, a prosperous business man of South Dublin, is sure to defeat Hon. Walter Long, the Tory incumbent. Cotton is a very pronounced Irish Nationalist. The followers of John Redmond also expect to carry Jerry Dwyer for the party, and that would be a body blow to Irish Orangism. On the whole the prospect for a general clean up in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales looks decidedly bright for the Liberals and the Irish Parliamentary party.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

The Right Rev. Bishop McGillick, Bishop of Duluth, Minn., celebrated the twentieth anniversary of his elevation to the episcopate with a Pontifical mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Minneapolis, on Wednesday. It was a trisune celebration because it was the feast of the Immaculate Conception, the anniversary of the church and the anniversary of Bishop McGillick, who had been pastor of that church twenty-two years before his elevation. The usual choir was supplemented by twenty-five members of the choir of twenty years ago and by an orchestra of fifteen pieces. From 8:30 until 10:30 o'clock in the evening Bishop McGillick met and greeted his old friends in Hennepin Council, Knights of Columbus, club rooms.

TRIED AND TRUE

Men Chosen as Officers of Mackin's Big Council.

The annual election of officers of Mackin Council brought out a large attendance last Monday night, and the nominations made at the previous meeting made sailing plain and easy. The new officers will be installed at the first meeting in January. President Louis J. Kieffer presided. John T. McNamee was transferred by card from Trinity Council. Albert Enz was re-elected improving. The President announced that the officers would attend the bazaar for Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital next Thursday night and invited as many members as could do so conveniently to meet at the club house and accompany the officers. The election of officers followed and resulted as follows:

Spiritual Director—Rev. A. J. Brady.

President—John T. Kinney.

First Vice President—Frank L. Lanahan.

Second Vice President—Sherley Coniff.

Recording Secretary—Robert Osborne.

Corresponding Secretary—William A. Link.

Financial Secretary—Frank G. Adams.

Treasurer—Dan Weber.

Marshal—Allen G. Wobben.

Inside Sentinel—A. C. Link.

Outside Sentinel—Joseph Stewart.

Executive Committee—William Kieffer, Louis J. Kieffer, Lawrence Kinsella, John Stewart and William F. Burke.

Medical Examiners—Drs. A. R. Bizot and Michael Casper.

All the newly elected officers are tried and true members of the council, and several of them have filled the same positions for years. Hereafter the President will be assisted by an advisory board of seven members. The new President will name his board on the evening he is installed. While the election was in progress cigars were passed and the members enjoyed an informal smoker.

GOLDEN JUBILEE

Of Parochial School Saw Many Able Men Together.

Last week the pastor and people of St. Gabriel's church, New York City, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of that church and school. Not the least impressive feature of the celebration was a banquet of the alumni of St. Gabriel's school, and many distinguished clergy and laymen were gathered around the festive board. The banquet was held at the Marlborough Hotel, and 250 former pupils sat down. Archbishop Farley occupied a position of honor at the head of the table, and invoked a blessing on the feast. He also praised the work done by St. Gabriel's school and said: "Fifty glorious years have passed since the venture which made St. Gabriel's the pioneer in carrying out the idea of erecting church and school together. St. Gabriel's will keep alive the principles of Catholic education."

Among the distinguished clergy who are members of St. Gabriel's alumni and who attended the feast were the Rev. Dr. John J. Dunn, Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith; the Right Rev. Monsignor Hayes, Very Rev. James V. Lewis, Fathers Aylward, Ryan, Irwin, Brody, Mastaglio, Ross, Doyle, Holland, Lynch, Murray, O'Connor, Tierney, Larkin and Rev. Dr. Hannan, the first Director of the school.

Members of the alumni during the evening contributed $2,500 toward the erection of a new school building. Among the donors was "Big Bill" Devery, former Chief of Police of New York City. His contribution was $100.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN.

Many friends mourn the death of Clarence W. Herd, Superintendent of the National Oak Leather Company, which occurred at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He had been in ill health for several months and seven weeks ago suffered a complete nervous collapse. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Lena Schoening, his mother, three brothers and three sisters. He was thirty-six years old and was a graduate of St. Xavier's College. The funeral took place from the Church of the Sacred Heart yesterday morning and was largely attended.

HONORED HIS MOTHER.

John Masterson Burke, a New York millionaire, died Friday night of last week, and left $4,000,000 to endow a home for convalescents. The home is to be a memorial to his mother, Mrs. Burke. He had retired from active business pursuits fifty years ago. Mr. Burke was ninety-eight years old. Some years ago he gave another million dollars to a great charity in New York, but did not announce from whom the gift was presented.

BIG FAIR

To Aid Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital in Its Work.

Clergy and Laity Unite to the Success of Great Event.

Fitting Close to Year For Catholics of the Louisville Diocese.

ALL PARISHES WILL SUPPORT

The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth who are in charge of Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, at Twelfth and Magnolia avenue, are desirous of increasing their building fund, and to that end have applied to the Very Rev. Administrator of the diocese, Father James P. Cronin, and to the other clergy and laity of Louisville to assist them. Thus far the responses have been spontaneous and generous. Every parish in the city is represented by ladies and gentlemen and the clergy is taking an active hand. Father Cronin authorized the call for all the meetings of clergy and laity and presided until officers were elected.

All the preliminary meetings were held in St. Francis Hall, in the basement of the Cathedral, and all arrangements have been completed for a big bazaar or fair to be held at Liederkrantz Hall on the afternoon and evening of next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The hall is easy of access by the street cars and owing to its location, at Sixth and Walnut streets, is centrally enough located for pedestrians from many down-town parishes.

There will be an administration booth, country store, fish pond, linen, candy, doll and cream booths, and a dining room.

The officers in charge of arrangements are:

Chairman—Dr. P. S. Ganz.

Vice Chairman—Patrick T. Sullivan.

Secretary—Patrick Savage.

Treasurer—Al Smith.

Floor Manager—Jacob J. Hübner.

Wheels—Andy Kast and Thomas S. Evans.

Press—S. M. Raffo.

The following ladies will preside at various booths: Mrs. A. J. Richards, Misses Katie Smith, Lullie Wittry, Dora Barrett, and Mesdames Jennie Campbell, Ben Sagdman, J. Graf, Thomas Tarry, Nadorf, Kruse, P. Callahan, Netherland and Miss Fitzgerald.

The different parishes are to be represented by the following ladies: St. Michael's—Mrs. B. Sandman, Mrs. John Barry, St. Paul's—Mrs. H. Zoll, Blessed Sacrament church—Miss Maggie Wallace, St. Boniface's—Mrs. W. L. Drake, St. Brigid's—Miss Dora Barrett, St. Mary's—Miss Katie Ott, St. Patrick's—Mrs. E. Holleran, Mrs. Dan Dougherty, Miss Dora McGinty, Cathedral—Mrs. Al Smith, Miss Campbell, St. Agnes'—Mrs. Boutel, St. Mary Magdalene—Mrs. Meehan, Mrs. Netherland, St. Aloysius—Mrs. Fitzgerald, Miss Anna Henneberger, St. Anthony's—Mrs. P. Kraft, Mrs. C. Nadorf, St. John's—Miss Stella O'Connor, Holy Name—Miss A. J. Richards, Mrs. J. J. Conolly, St. Francis of Rome—Miss Daisy Morrison, Mrs. W. L. Wiesen, Miss Margaret Tobin, Mrs. W. F. Hoffman, St. Charles—Mrs. J. Miller, Sacred Heart—Mrs. Mary Canty, Mrs. J. Tighe, St. Cecilia's—Mrs. B. Reardon, Miss Margaret Carroll, Miss Emma Fisher, St. Columba's—Mrs. P. Erwin, St. Louis Bertrand—Mrs. J. Smart, Miss Lillian Score, Miss Stella O'Connell, St. Francis Xavier's—Mrs. Wagner.

From the time the fair opens until it closes every person who enters Liederkrantz Hall with a ticket will have an opportunity to secure a splendid organ donated by Smith & Nixon, and tickets for the piano offered by the Montenegro-Richman Company are going rapidly. Father Cronin has donated a gold medal, and the ladies in charge of the dining room have done excellently well in securing provisions, although more donations will be thankfully accepted.

Peculiar circumstances brought about by causes beyond the control of the Sisters of Charity have obliged them to make this exceptional appeal. They find it imperatively necessary to build an addition to Sts. Mary and Elizabeth's Hospital. Heretofore it has been self-sustaining, although largely by charitable contributions, many patients having been nursed free of charge.

The hospital has been established nearly forty years, and has done good work. Now those who conduct it ask their friends to assist them in the present work.

COL. DORIAN HONORED.

On Monday night the Paducah Branch of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America elected Col. John J. Dorian as its delegate to the Supreme Council, which will meet at St. Louis next May. Col. Dorian has served in the same capacity at previous conventions and knows the ropes excellently well.

DOINGS OF KNIGHTS.

Louisville Council, Knights of Columbus, will confer the three degrees on a class of seventy-five candidates on Sunday afternoon, December 19. This is one of the largest classes ever put through in Louisville, and will run the council close to the 700 mark. Tomorrow many of the members will go to Elizabethtown via the Illinois Central railroad to assist at the initiation of a class and the establishment of a new council there. The train will leave the Seventh street depot at 8 o'clock and will reach Elizabethtown at 9:30 to allow the members to attend high mass. The train will leave Elizabethtown at 10:15 o'clock on the return trip.

TRINITY COUNCIL

Selects New Officers But Good Men to Guide.

Trinity Council had a splendidly attended meeting on Monday night with President James B. Kelly presiding. The main business was the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

PRESIDENT V. K. ECKER.

Chaplain—Rev. J. A. O'Grady.

President—Vic K. Ecker.

First Vice President—Dan J. Hennessy.

Second Vice President—Frank Brigran.

Financial Secretary—Clem. A. Elert.

Recording Secretary—Phil Sandman.

Corresponding Secretary—Raymond Eyl.

Treasurer—C. Edward Mueller.

Marshal—Henry Dries.

Executive Committee—J. C. Kirchner, A. G. Schneider, J. L. Coniffe, John Rittman and Robert Denzinger.

Collector—James A. Meyer.

Mr. Ecker had no opposition for election as President, and all the new officers were well chosen. They have worked in and out of season for the success of the council. The new officers will be installed at the first meeting in January. The next thing in order will be the "grosses gast mohl," which will be held next Monday evening. President Kelly promises plenty of good German dishes and a feast for all the members.

HAPPY EVENING

Spent When Division 1, A. O. H., Held Its Election.

Division 1, A. O. H., held an old time reunion as well as its annual election of officers on Tuesday evening. The attendance was large and every member was in the happiest frame of mind. President Thomas Keenan presided and kept things going at a lively rate. On behalf of the Visiting Committee James Doran reported none ill. When time for the election of officers arrived the interest became general, and from the fact that there were six candidates for President and six for Vice President it can be seen that the election was not one-sided. The result of the balloting was as follows:

President—Thomas Walsh.

Vice President—William Murphy.

Recording Secretary—Thomas P. Lawler.

Financial Secretary—Thos. Dolan.

Treasurer—Thomas Keenan, Sr.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Louis Roller.

Sentinel—David Whelan.

Standing Committee—James P. Cusack, David O'Connell, Martin Cusack, James Kilkelly and Thomas Fitzgibbon.

Addresses of thanks were made by all the officers elected. Thomas Dolan, the newly elected Financial Secretary, convulsed all with his sallies of wit and made many happy hits at the expense of the other members.

President Keenan announced that during the current year there had been five deaths in the division, and that these with numerous sick claims had proven a severe drain upon the treasury. Now, he said, things were in better shape and that the treasury was not depleted.

William Kilkelly pleased everybody with selections on the piano, and for his trouble was elected Musical Director. During the evening the Entertainment Committee furnished plenty of Tom Tarpey's "Just Right" brand of cigars.

President Keenan announced that the division would hold an initiation at the next meeting. The new officers will be installed at the first meeting in January.

TWO WEEKS FOR PLAY.

The public schools of Louisville will begin the Christmas holiday recess on December 22. The season will close on January 3, giving pupils and teachers a fortnight's respite. The holidays in the Catholic schools will be practically the same.

DOWNFALL

Of Italy's Cabinet Threatens Dire Disaster to That Country.

Unpleasant For Pope It Radicals and Socialists Win Victory.

Germany and United States Seem to Be Only Asylums Left.

WAR ON THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE

The Giolitti Cabinet in Italy went down in defeat on Thursday of last week, which necessitates the forming of a new Cabinet at once. Italy is now undergoing a crisis like that of Great Britain, and practically for the same reason—a fight over the financial budget. To those in Italy the disturbance is more serious than to us in the United States. The downfall of the Cabinet was primarily due to the defeat of Premier Giolitti's fiscal reforms. The general opinion is that Giolitti will be asked to form a new Cabinet or that Baron Sonnino will be asked to construct one.

The situation in Italy is this: On one side are the Conservatives aiming at an understanding with the Clericals with a programme for increased taxation, augmentation of armaments, strengthening of the triple alliance, and the bringing about of some sort of a modus vivendi with the Vatican, putting an end to the vexed questions in Rome, even by allowing that the position of absolute independence of the Supreme Pontiff in Rome should be recognized and granted through international agreement. On the other hand are the Radicals, Republicans and Socialists, who have discovered that there is no contradiction to their becoming Ministers even under a monarchical government.

Thus preparations are going forward to form an extremist Cabinet. The programme includes an abandonment of the triple alliance, radical fiscal reform, the suppression of burdens on the necessities of the poorer classes and augmenting the taxes of the rich, substituting a national militia for the standing army, and finally conducting an energetic campaign against the Catholic church by suppressing and disbanding the religious orders, confiscating their property, abolishing the schools conducted by priests, prohibiting religious teaching in the public schools and secularizing the Holy See and the administration of the church with that of any company, thus obliging the Vatican to account for the funds it has received and spent.

Should such a Government come into power the question is: Could the Pope remain in Rome? The conclusion to which prominent politicians and prelates come is that if the Pope thought himself forced to leave the Eternal City, only one country in Europe could offer him an asylum; namely Germany, whose Emperor was the only sovereign to send him greetings on his episcopal jubilee with an autograph letter. However, if Germany failed, the safest land to which to transport the Holy See, it is remarked, would be the United States, where the Pope would acquire new energy and fresh impulse from American life and influences.

Senator Tittoni, Minister of Foreign Affairs in the fallen Cabinet, sees danger in Italy's withdrawal from the triple alliance. He declares it would give Austria a long looked for opportunity to declare war and to pour her soldiers into Italy through the Alpine passes while the Austrian fleet will attack the Adriatic coast.

On the other hand, there are plenty of people, even occupying high positions, who are convinced that what might be called the prudent policy of the last Cabinet was excessive and unjustified. It is recalled that King Victor himself since his accession to the throne has given no doubtful proof of his desire to emancipate himself and his country from the kind of patronage extended to them by the Kaiser and Germany, repelling at the same time the hostile attitude of Austria. It is chiefly due to the King if the Italo-Russian relations were so strengthened as to lead to the meeting of Racconigi. It is also recalled that Austria last year, after the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, did not dare to fight Serbia, although repeatedly provoked by the small dominion of King Peter, so that she will think twice before attacking Italy, which some believe quite fit to successfully confront her, as was proved by Gen. Asinari's violent utterances last week.

Will the Triple be able to resist such a situation? It seems almost impossible, especially as it is known that Germany, still sore at Italy's desertion at Algiers, will claim at the renewal of the treaty that Italy shall give guarantees that she will support her allies, diplomatically in peace times and with her forces in time of war.

HANNEN'S HANDS FULL.

Hon. Edward D. Hannen was chosen Grand Knight of Paducah Council, Knights of Columbus, on Wednesday night of last week. He received seventy-one of the ninety-one votes cast. Mr. Hannen is an old Louisville boy, but for twenty years has resided in Paducah, where he occupies positions of business, social and political influence. He is president of the Board of Aldermen and the city's leading plumber. One would think that he would be satisfied with the new honor thrust upon him, but Ed has two more ambitions. He wants to be Mayor of Paducah and to establish a division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in that city. Both ambitions are laudable and his friends will help him to attain both. In Paducah there is nothing too good for Alderman Hannen.

YOUNGER ELEMENT

Will Rule Affairs of Unity Council Next Year.

Unity Council, Y. M. I. of New Albany, met Tuesday night with the best attendance of the year. All knew it was the date for holding the annual election, and this brought out nearly every member of the council. The election was quite spirited. In some instances the votes were tied and a second ballot was necessary. The final result was as follows:

President—Fred Reisz.

First Vice President—John Martel.

Recording and Corresponding Secretary—John Poutrich.

Financial Secretary—Frank Zoeller.

Treasurer—Edmund Schmitt.

Marshal—Joseph Tiedeman.

Inside Sentinel—George Renn.

Outside Sentinel—Jacob Renn.

Executive Committee—Peter Spickert, Peter Pfeffer, Emile Dupaquier, James O'Hara and Joseph Schmitt.

Among the visitors was James T. Shelley, of Louisville, one of the Supreme Directors. He made a brief talk on affairs of the order in general and the proposed affiliation or union of the Y. M. I. with the Catholic Young Men's National Union. Owing to the late hour Mr. Shelley's talk was rather brief and he promised to visit the council again when he could speak more at length.

Unity Council's affairs are in sound financial condition. With the exception of the Executive Committee the new officers represent the younger element. The new officers will be installed on the first Tuesday in January. The members of Unity will receive a holy communion in a body at St. Mary's church at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning.

OLD OFFICERS

Are Good Enough For Division 3, A. O. H., to Uphold.

Division 3, A. O. H., held its regular meeting on Thursday evening of last week, and the previous announcement that the election of officers would take place had a salutary effect in bringing out a large attendance. President Patrick T. Sullivan presided. Patrick Kilkenny was elected to membership. The Visiting Committee reported that Thomas Kahn was suffering from a sprained hand, and John Martin, William Kelly, and James Horan, who have been ill, were reported as improving.

Under the head of new business the election of officers for the ensuing year was taken up and resulted as follows:

President—Patrick T. Sullivan.

Vice President—Martin Sheehan.

Recording Secretary—Thomas J. Stevens.

Financial Secretary—John G. Heslin.

Treasurer—Daniel J. Dougherty.

Sentinel—Thomas Noon.

Sergeant-at-Arms—James P. Stevens.

Standing Committee—Thomas Kennedy, James Ryan, James Trestone, John Karman and John Broderick.

In an eloquent address President Sullivan thanked the members for the confidence reposed in him and promised he would do everything in his power to make the division prosper during the ensuing year. With the exception of Patrick Begley, who declined to stand for re-election as Sergeant-at-Arms, all the old officers were re-elected, and a thanked their fellow-members for new marks of confidence. Mr. Begley will still be a good Hibernian, even if he is not an officer.

Addresses were made by State President George J. Butler, L. J. Mackey and James Coleman. Many other members made brief talks during the evening. The tenor of each address was that Division 3 would try for better things during 1910.

Before adjourning President Sullivan reminded the members that a big joint initiation would be held at Bertrand Hall on the afternoon of Sunday, December 19.

FAIR WAS BIG SUCCESS.

The Catholic fair at Syracuse for the benefit of the House of Providence was a great success and netted $30,000. Men of all classes and creeds assisted and the children of every orphan asylum in Onondaga county were taken to the fair and allowed to see the sights. All were presented with toys and sweets. The fair was held in the Armory and continued six nights. On the closing night 7,138 people crowded the hall. The automobile to be awarded to the most popular priest was won by the Rev. Father William F. Dougherty, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's church and Chairman of the managing board of the fair.

SPIRITUAL RETREAT.

The retreat for girls and young ladies at St. Louis Bertrand's parish will close at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening. The Rev. Father J. V. Molloy, O. P., has been giving the instructions and has been much pleased with the attendance and the piety of the young women.

DANGEROUS

Work Is That of Switching in the Big Railroad Yards.

Pay Is Scanty and the Insurance Companies Fight Shy.

Must Be Men of Activity and Brains to Hold the Job.

CONDITION ALMOST INTOLERABLE

Appropos of the great strike of railroad switchmen in the Northwest and the possibility of that strike spreading through the East and to other branches of the railroad service, it might be well to look into the dangers that these railroad switchmen encounter. Any life insurance company that knows its business will not insure a switchman. Actuaries for the companies whose lives the lives and conditions of railroad switchmen a study. They will either not accept such a risk or else fix a rate high enough to be absolutely prohibitive.

The demand for more money and better conditions was primarily brought about in Chicago's freight yards, said to be the most dangerous in the world. The danger is not to the man who stands in the tower and throws a lever according to signals. Neither is it to the man who stands on the ground and throws a switch ahead and behind a train. The greatest danger is to the foreman of the engine and his assistants.

In Chicago the foreman of a freight switching crew receives from thirty-five to thirty-seven cents an hour. He works the calendar month through regardless of Sundays and holidays, and his average pay is $96 a month. While supposed to work only ten hours each day he may be called upon to perform duty for twelve, fourteen or even sixteen hours. Of course he gets paid for overtime, but the work is more wearing and every minute he is increasing the danger of losing his life.

As a rule the work is not as long and certainly not as hazardous during the summer months as it is during winter, when the engine footboards are covered with snow and ice and a pitiless wind is biting the face and ears. Each engine foreman has at least one, sometimes two or more assistants, and these assistants receive from thirty-two to thirty-four cents an hour and work every calendar month through.

They get a furlough when they lose a leg, an arm or get buried. They are required to have brains and to use them. It is more hazardous than sitting at a desk, clipping coupons and it requires more brains. There are more than 2,000 switchmen in Chicago. St. Paul, Minneapolis, Lincoln, Omaha and every other large commercial center has hundreds and more of them. The life of a switchman is eight years, if he is not dead after eight years' service he is either minus arms or legs and unfit for duty. He must seek other means of a livelihood.

The switchman must keep a cool head and swift feet and be as alert as an alert eye. The wrong signal or mistaking a signal may mean death, certainly disaster. He must be thrifty and steady. His only hope is to save enough money in a few years to enable him to enter some line of business less dangerous. Few switchmen are fortunate enough to obtain a railroad promotion to a less hazardous position.

Not one out of a thousand persons that ride on railroad trains understand the risks taken by the switchmen. Not one in 10,000 of those who ship freight realize the perils of the men who handle their goods at terminals and junctions. The American people are quick to throw their sentiments the right way when they realize the wrong that is being done, and if the striking switchmen continue to carry on a campaign of education their wages will be raised and the general conditions under which they work will be ameliorated.

BARDSTOWN INITIATION.

More than 100 Knights from Louisville went to Bardstown last Sunday to attend the initiation of a class of forty. The councils at Bowling Green and Lebanon were also well represented. The banquet was held in the evening after the third degree had been conferred. Hon. Ben Johnson, Congressman from the Fourth district, was the toastmaster. Those who responded to toasts were Judge Sam J. Boldrick, of Louisville, whose subject was "Catholicity in Kentucky"; Attorney Thomas P. Walsh, of Louisville, who spoke on "The Ideal Knight"; Attorney J. J. Kavanaugh, of Louisville, whose theme was "The Catholic Citizen." John Talbot, of Bardstown, made an interesting talk on "Increasing Membership."

PRESIDENT TAFT'S MESSAGE.

President William H. Taft sent his first annual message to the United States Congress on Tuesday. It is worth while for every true American to read it; then to read it again, until it is thoroughly digested. It is not as long as annual messages from some of the Presidents, and yet it contains something more than 17,000 words. Neither does it sparkle with platitudes like the messages of Grover Cleveland or Theodore Roosevelt. It is all very plain, blunt language and written in a vigorous American style. Representatives and Senators regard it as a strong document, although Democrats and Republicans differ as to the advisability of some of the measures he recommends.

The message takes in a wide range of subjects, many of them purely local in interest, but after the first reading anyone would pronounce it a Republican document. One of his strong Republican points is that he recommends no further tariff tinkering until a tariff commission is formed and can get to work. In other words the Aldrich high tariff is to remain untouched for from two to four years if President Taft has his way. He also opposes any Congressional investigation of the sugar trust scandal in the New York Custom House.

After reading the message from start to finish one can not help being struck with the fact that the President, although the avowed friend of labor, shows no concern for labor's needs in his first annual address to Congress. He makes no specific recommendation of legislation to forbid the issuance of judicial injunctions without notice in labor controversies and says nothing concerning the much mooted question of postal savings banks.

Other subjects that he merely touches on, but reserves for future and perhaps separate messages, are the Nicaraguan question, conservation of the nation's natural resources, necessary amendments to the anti-trust law, the contemplated revision of the Federal statutes governing the organization of the armed forces of the nation in time of war. Of course the President announces that prosperity has arrived, accuses the present high tariff of being father of the child, and acts as herald for a period of broad business expansion, provided of course that the present tariff be let alone.

He may be commended for recommending the publicity of campaign contributions in Congressional races, but his recommendations for a ship subsidy and for civil pensions are diametrically opposed to Democratic doctrine. His recommendations for a higher rate of postage on periodicals and magazines deserves careful examination on the part of Congress. Mr. Taft calls for a fund of $50,000 to aid in suppressing the "white slave" traffic. That, to a great extent, ought to be the care of the police in the several States and cities. His idea for the establishment of a national board of health is not a bad one.

The message as a whole contains much food for thought, and it is safe to say that Congress will be busy enacting or rejecting his wishes until midsummer.

NOT A SOLOMON.

The press dispatches of the last week contained a very unique, one might call it a brutal and horrible story, if it be true. It is dated from Fargo, North Dakota, and tells that Judge Charles Amidon, of the United States District Court for North Dakota, in an address at the Congregational church there advocated the execution of the professional criminal and the hopelessly insane. He took the position that it costs as much to keep a man in the penitentiary as it does to keep and educate a man in a university, and thought that well behaved young men should not be deprived of an education by the expenditure of public money in keeping a naturally bad man under lock and key. Judge Amidon stated that the percentage of professional criminals who are reformed is so small as not to be worth mentioning. He thought the hopelessly insane should be put to death in a humane way, thus relieving them of their misery.

What can one expect from the unintelligent when a Judge on the bench of the United States Court advocates such sentiments, and worse than that, speaks in a church?

LORDS IN DANGER.

The British Peers have literally placed their heads in the lion's mouth, and Mr. English Lion will proceed to bite off their heads. It is only a question of a few weeks now until the Lords will find their finish.

By their action in rejecting the budget the British Peers flung down the gage of battle, which was promptly lifted by the Government. Commons answered defiance with defiance, and now a general election must determine the will of the voters of the United Kingdom. This time it is not the Irish alone who are twisting the lion's tail. It is being twisted by the English commoners themselves.

The outlook for the Liberals has never been so hopeful, nor the circumstances in which they appeal to the suffrages of the electors more encouraging. For a whole generation they have looked forward to a battle against the House of Lords, and now the long wished for opportunity has arrived. The forces engaged in the assault upon the hereditary chamber, alias the House of Lords, will come from nearly all ranks, and all will be inspired by the common feeling—to end forever the power of an irresponsible oligarchy to thwart or override the well defined and clearly expressed public opinion of the United Kingdom.

To Britishers the abolition of the House of Lords may seem neither feasible nor politic, but its reform will be both, and the result of the coming general election demonstrate very forcibly indeed the fact that the English people have at length arisen to the stern resolve to submit to it no longer.

ADMIRABLE DISCRETION.

Mayor Head and his Board of Public Safety are receiving many encomiums not only for the appointments and promotions made in the Fire and Police departments, but likewise for the forbearance shown in treatment of men reduced. Men who had long served the city as police Captains and Lieutenants, and who had been faithful to their duties aside from their political preferences, were not sent to "tall timber" or "high grass" as certain unfeeling Democratic partisans suggested. They were merely reduced in rank, but placed in places where they will be of service to the city and where their tasks will not be onerous. The fact that they were not humiliated and made to resign also reflects credit on the chief subordinates of Mayor Head and his Cabinet.

ADVERTISING IGNORANCE.

The necessity of a Catholic paper in the home is more than ever emphasized by the utter ignorance, one might say criminal ignorance, of the people who write and handle copy for the daily papers. Both the Louisville Times and the Louisville Post informed their readers on Thursday that Wednesday was the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin. There may be an excuse for ignorance, but not for advertising it.

Many of you are preparing gifts for relatives and friends. Do not make presents too large for your purse and do not forget the orphans, the indigent and the aged and infirm. Make some sacrifices for those who are God's chosen. Our Saviour was of the poor and gave his life for them. His apostles were chosen from among them. Let us not forget the poor at this holy season.

Everybody in Louisville that has attained the age of reason knows the work that is being done by the Sisters of Charity at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, and those who attend the bazaar at Liederkranz Hall next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will be doing the work that Our Saviour loves.

The Spaniards continue to insist that, although a matador, pleader and a torador are killed now and then in a bull fight, their national game is far less brutal than the Puritanic game of football. There is reason in that, too.

WHO COULD BLAME THEM?

The Associated Press recently reported from Des Moines, Iowa, that the Young Women's Christian Association refused a check for $1,000 from a brewing company to apply on a building debt. In the morning a committee from the association called for a donation. A check for $1,000 was promptly made out to the association. When it was reported a committee considered the proposition and decided to refuse the check. The check was returned with the request that the two brewers make out their personal checks for $500 each. This they refused to do.

Andy Kast, the new Superintendent of the city's sewers and drains, suffered a severe attack of grip and has been in bed the greater part of the week. He is now convalescent and while not able to be out is ready and willing to chat with the many friends who call.

HALF-AMERICAN LORDS.

Some people were anxious to know how British Peers with American wives voted on the British budget. The women folks do not appear to have cut much figure. Those who voted against the budget were the Duke of Marlborough, Lords Essex, Suffolk, Barrymore, Chesham, Curzon, Donoughmore, Tankerville and Oxford. The Marquis of Suffren was a convert but did not vote. Lords Cranborne, Ashburnham and Grey voted for the budget.

"QUAKER JIM."

"Quaker Jim" is the title of a new book very recently published by the Broadway Publishing Company, of New York City. Its author, Richard A. Kelly, is a Kentuckian and a resident of Louisville, and a member of a family well known in the East End.

"Quaker Jim" is a tale of life in Kentucky, and particularly of Washington county. The author declares that most of the scenes are laid near Springfield. In "Quaker Jim" Mr. Kelly mingles homely wit with pathos, but continues to make each character stand out in bold relief. It is a book that will make you smile and ask someone else to read and to smile with you. "Quaker Jim" will be on sale at all of the book stores and ought to make a nice gift for Christmas.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Division 1 lost five members by death this year.

Division 1 of Brainard, Minn., has contributed $20 to the John A. Johnson memorial fund.

New Albany Hibernians elected their officers at a largely attended meeting. Thursday night. Their names will appear next week.

Division 4 of the St. Paul Hibernians and Division 8 of the Ladies' Auxiliary will give a joint dance and card party on the night of January 10.

Division 2, Ladies' Auxiliary, of St. Paul, Minn., initiated a large class last week. National Treasurer Mrs. Mary B. Dale was one of the main guests.

Members of Division 1 look to their new President, Arthur J. Walsh, for great things, and have promised to help him increase the membership 100 per cent.

Division 1 will hold the last meeting of the year on Tuesday, December 21, when the new team will confer the degrees on a large number of candidates.

The County Board expects every member of the order in Jefferson county to be present at the initiation to be held at Bertrand Hall on Sunday, December 19.

The County Board for next year will be one of the strongest in the history of that body. It will be organized and choose officers during the month of January.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet Wednesday evening of next week and close the work of 1909. Every member is urged to attend, as the business will be of interest to all.

The custom of paying friendly visits is growing in popularity among the divisions of the Eastern States. Pleasing programmes are arranged and the results have been beneficial.

Lovell Hibernians initiated a class of seventy-five last week. Of these fifty were accredited to Division 5 and twenty-five to Division 11. After the degree work all sat down to a banquet at one of the hotels.

Division 3 meets next Thursday night at Seventeenth and Main and every member is urged to attend. Under the leadership of President Sullivan this division has made much progress, and his re-election augurs well for the next year.

The Ladies' Auxiliary at Manchester, N. H., initiated nine candidates at the last meeting. Monday night the ladies held an apron sale in their hall that proved very successful.

Division 4, the largest in Kentucky, will elect officers for the coming year on Monday night. President Hennessy looks for a gathering that will crowd Bertrand Hall. So well have the present officers performed their duties that few if any changes will be made.

There are few divisions that have made more progress during the past twelve months than No. 2 of this city. President Ford will give a resume of the work of the year at the meeting next Friday night and Secretary John Keane will report the financial condition. A big meeting is anticipated.

LABOR ENDS.

Beloved Prelate Will Lie
in the Far Off
East.

It has been formally announced that the remains of the Right Rev. Thomas A. Hendrick, Bishop of Cebu, will not be brought to the United States, but will be entombed in the land in which he labored for the last five years. He died of cholera on Tuesday of last week.

Bishop Hendrick was a native of New York State and was sixty years old. He came of a religious family, one of his brothers, the Rev. Father Joseph Hendrick, being with him when he died. Two sisters, now dead, were nuns, and another brother, Hon. Peter Hendrick, is serving fourteen years as a Judge of the New York Supreme Court. After receiving his theological degree at Fordham College he was ordained in 1873. As a young priest he was assistant pastor of St. Mary's church in Rochester, and later was made rector of Holy Cross church at Charlotte, N. Y. In 1891 he took charge of St. Bridget's church in Rochester, where he remained until made Bishop of Cebu. In 1893 Pope Leo summoned him to Rome to prepare for his consecration, but the Pope died while Father Hendrick was en route to the Eternal City. Soon after arriving in Rome he was consecrated by Cardinal Satolli and took up his work in the Philippines early in 1904.

The work was hard and the climate enervating. The prelate had been in ill health nearly a year. Not long ago a coadjutor was appointed to him and Bishop Hendrick was coming home for a prolonged rest when death overtook him.

In Rochester he was beloved by people of all creeds and all are now extending sympathy to his old Catholic parishioners and friends.

LADIES CHOOSE OFFICERS.

LORD BOOSTS BROTHER.

Cable news has it that Lord Granard, Earl of Longford, and one of the Liberal Irish Peers, has put his brother, Capt. Donald Forbes, forward as the Liberal candidate for the district of Marylebone, London. Capt. Forbes is an officer in the artillery. Marylebone is a strong Tory district, and Capt. Forbes' candidacy will cost his brother $10,000.

CAUSTIC CRITICISM.

The editor of the Chicago Citizen is quite caustic in his criticisms of John Devoy, editor of the Gaelic American, of New York City. He writes: "During the thirty years we have known of John Devoy's doings in America he has been a disturber, a dissension breeder and a political Ishmaelite, with his hand against every man and every man's hand against him. John Devoy has been doing the work of Ireland's enemies, but he has not done it for English gold. His reward has been the gratification of his bitter vindictiveness toward all who have rejected his insane pretensions to be the dictator of the Irish race."

ONE CATHOLIC JURIST.

Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota each has at least one Catholic on the Court of Appeals Bench. The latest comer is Judge John Carmody, who was recently appointed by Gov. Burke, of North Dakota. Judge Carmody was born in Wisconsin in 1854. His parents were Irish. He began to make his own living as a school teacher and studied law at night. In 1880 he was admitted to the bar. After five years' practice in Minnesota he removed to North Dakota. In 1886 he married Miss Anna Madden. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Christie, now Archbishop of Portland, Ore. Judge Carmody is a member of the Knights of Columbus and President of the North Dakota Bar Association.

SOLEMN TRIDUUM.

Immaculate Conception

Parish in Chicago Will Celebrate.

Tomorrow the members of the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Chicago will begin a three-day celebration of the founding of their congregation. It is one of the pioneer Catholic churches on Chicago's north side. The Rev. Thomas P. Hodnett, pastor of the church, has arranged the triduum. The exercises tomorrow will begin with a solemn Pontifical mass celebrated by the Most Rev. Archbishop Quigley. In the evening at 7:30 the Right Rev. Bishop Bonannum, of Lincoln, Neb., will officiate at solemn vespers.

On Monday morning solemn requiem mass will be offered for the repose of the souls of all deceased members and benefactors of the parish. On Tuesday morning a solemn mass of thanksgiving will be offered up for all living members of the parish and its living benefactors. In the evening at 8 o'clock there will be a home coming in the school hall. The first church was a frame structure erected in 1859. It was partially destroyed in 1871, but after a temporary roof had been placed over it the people continued to worship there until 1874, when a new church was erected. Since Father Bonannum's arrival he has made improvements to the extent of $50,000 on the church and $23,000 on the school. He has three assistant priests.

THE POPE'S DOUBLE.

A message from Rome to the daily papers says reports have been published recently in the anti-Clerical newspapers that the Pope frequently rides through Rome in an automobile, accompanied by his State Secretary, Cardinal Merry Del Val. This was denied from the Vatican, and then some of the cinematograph shows produced pictures of two men closely resembling the Pope and Del Val riding in an automobile through Via Nazionale. The pictures were so closely "faked" that they deceived some who know the Pontiff and the Cardinal well.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

The annual report of the Very Rev. Thomas M. Shahan, Rector of the Catholic University at Washington, is published in the latest issue of the Catholic University Bulletin. The report gives complete details of the resources and liabilities and the receipts and expenditures of the institution for the fiscal year. The university has no debts, and its invested funds amount to $701,602.30. This makes an increase of $74,178 over the previous year. The Rector notes that the fund of $55,000 pledged by the Knights of Columbus is making steady progress. He also notes that four of the fifty scholarships promised by the Ancient Order

FINAL SUMMONS

Called Michael Finegan to Enter Upon Eternal Reward.

Michael Finegan, one of the oldest members of St. Louis Bertrand's parish, and one of the most respected citizens of Louisville, died at his home, 1039 South Sixth street, early Thursday morning. Although he had been critically ill for several weeks, the news of his death was a severe shock to his friends, and no man in Louisville had more friends than Mike Finegan. His acquaintances were among the high as well as the humble. His word was his bond to all men. Men like former United States Senator John G. Carlisle, the late Senator Beck and Gov. Wilson were proud to call Mike Finegan their friend. He lived the life of a just man, and died the death of a Christian.

Mr. Finegan is survived by the following children: Thomas Finegan, Assistant Yardmaster for the L. and N.; Mrs. Peter Jennings of Hill House, Miss; Mary, Nellie and Mrs. Harry Fisher. Besides these Mr. Finegan is survived by two devoted brothers, Patrick and John Finegan. The death of the elder brother is as much a loss to these two as to the children.

There was no stancher Irish Nationalist and no better American in Louisville than Mr. Finegan. His long life ought to be an example for Irish Catholics everywhere. The funeral will take place from St. Louis Bertrand's church at 10 o'clock this morning.

FORD FINDS FAVOR

With Members of Division 2 For Another Term.

Division 2, A. O. H., held a big meeting Tuesday night, and the session was a busy and a happy one. The election of officers was the main feature of the evening, but with one accord the members insisted on returning Com. J. Ford to the President's chair for another term. The new officers chosen are: President—C. J. Ford. Vice President—Raymond Barrett. Recording Secretary—Tim J. Stone. Financial Secretary—John T. Keane.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Dave Murphy. Sentinel—William Nash. Standing Committee—Rodney Hall, William T. Meehan, Edward Keiran, Ernest Smith and John J. Sullivan.

Division 2 has enjoyed a prosperous year and has made a greater percentage of gain than any other division in the city. Instead of holding a meeting next Friday night, Division 2 has generously surrendered its hall at First and Market streets to the Sligo Club, whose members intend to give a charity euchre on that night. The cause is a worthy one, and all members of Division 2 and their friends are invited.

SUPREME COUNCIL

Of Catholic Knights of America Will Meet in Nashville.

The next Supreme Council of the Catholic Knights of America will meet at Nashville, Tenn., May 10-13, 1910. Thus far $600 has been raised for the entertainment of the visiting delegates, and the committee planning the entertainment expects to raise as much more before the council meets. Nashville is proud to have the convention assemble there, and for more than one reason.

In the first place it has good ground to the claim of being the cradle of the order. It was in Nashville that the organization was launched by Mr. McLoughlin and Bishop Feehan, afterward Archbishop of Chicago, in 1877. It began in a humble manner and its nearly thirty-three years of good work have not all been years of sunshine. The projectors of the order did not foresee the vast good that the Knights were to do.

Cincinnati has already organized a "Nashville Club" and it is probable that Louisville and St. Louis and other centers of the order will follow suit.

PARALYSIS PROVES FATAL

Peter M. Andriot, the veteran wagon manufacturer, died at his home, 2821 St. Xavier street, early Thursday morning. About ten days previous he suffered a paralytic stroke and from the first attack little hope was entertained for his recovery. For thirty-five years Mr. Andriot had carried on the business of wagon and carriage making on Green street, near Second, and had built up a lucrative trade. He was an enterprising and public spirited business man and made friends of all with whom he came in contact. He was always a devout Catholic and an exemplary husband and father. He is survived by his wife and four children. The sons are Edward and Lawrence, who were associated with their father in business, and Adolph Andriot, and a daughter, Miss Virginia. The funeral will take place from St. Cecilia's church this morning. Mr. Andriot was a member of St. Cecilia's parish for many years, and a veteran member of the Knights of Columbus.

PRO-CATHEDRAL DEDICATED.

The new pro-cathedral of the Incarnation, at Nashville, Tenn., was dedicated with due solemnity on Thursday, the feast of the Immaculate Conception. The Pontifical mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Thomas Sebastian Byrne, Bishop of Nashville. Among the clergy in the sanctuary were the Most Rev. Henry Moeller, Archbishop of Cincinnati; Bishop Hartley, of Columbus, Ohio, and Bishop

FATHER Koenig's NERVE TONIC
Helpless Condition.
Mrs. Clara Roloff writes from Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 2, 1907: "My son was 7 years of age when he was afflicted with St. Vitus dance, which put him in a pitiful and helpless condition. After the use of the first bottle of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic his condition improved and after using three more bottles he was not afflicted for a time of 5 years. Then he had another spell but not severe at all and having taken another bottle he has not been bothered since. I therefore recommend this Tonic to anyone who is molested with this sickness. Everyone who had seen my boy before and after taking the Tonic would make the same statement that I have made."

Mr. Geo. W. Sloan of Petoskey, Mich., writes on March 8, 1906: "I was restless, could not sleep and my lower limbs were so weak that I could not give any aid to my wife. I then took 2 bottles of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic and I got around as well as ever and sleep all night."

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. ### RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Mrs. Lula McLoughlin, who died at the family residence, 535 East Green street, on Friday night, took place from St. Boniface church, Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. The deceased was thirty-nine years old and a native of Louisville. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Lula Steltenkamp. Her husband and several brothers survive.

Mrs. Rose Russell, until three years ago a resident of Louisville, died suddenly at her home in Los Angeles on Sunday morning. The telegram announcing her death was exceedingly brief, but it is believed death resulted from heart trouble. Prior to her marriage the deceased was Miss Rose McCrory and was the daughter of the late Joseph McCrory. She is survived by her husband, John L. Russell, and two small children, and by her sister, Mrs. Theresa Kyle, who was with her when the end came. The remains will be brought to this city for interment and the funeral will take place from the Cathedral of the Assumption.

BLOEMER BROS.' OPENING.

Bloemer Bros. will have a formal opening of their cafe, Twenty-second and Duncan streets, next Monday evening from 8 o'clock until 1. An elaborate short lunch with all the accessories will be provided. Good music will enliven the scene. ### CENTRAL VEREIN.

John B. Oelkers, President of the National Central Verein, has notified the various branches that the next national convention will be held in Newark, N. J., in the fall of next year.

PARENTS GRIEVE

Over Mysterious Disappearance of Little Alma Kellner.

At the hour of going to press no trace had been found of little Miss Alma Kellner, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kellner, Jr., who has been missing since Wednesday morning. She left home to attend mass at St. John's church and was last seen at Hancock and Broadway, about a square from her home. The belief of her parents and police authorities is that the child has been kidnapped. Her parents are well-to-do, and it is possible that designing and malignant persons have abducted the child and are holding her for a ransom.

Little Alma was unusually bright and was a pupil of the Sisters of Mercy Academy on East Broadway. She was beloved by her companions and pupils. When she left home it was to attend mass at St. John's church, five blocks away. Since then all trace of the little one is missing. Police and detectives are scouring the city for news of the missing child, and the parents and relatives are spending anxious moments awaiting news of the little girl. The story of her disappearance appeals to every mother and father in the community, and no stone is being left unturned to recover little Alma. If she has been abducted and the would-be abductors are caught summary punishment should be dealt out to them.

GETTING READY.

Ashland Hibernians Elect Officers That Will Work.

Division 1, A. O. H., of Ashland, Ky., met Monday night and elected the following officers for 1910: President—James Burdiss, Sr.
Vice President—Michael Purtle, Sr.
Financial Secretary—Chas. O'Riley.
Recording Secretary—E. J. Clinton.
Treasurer—J. J. O'Neill.
Sergeant-at-Arms—John Seery.
Sentinel—P. H. O'Kelly.
Chairman Standing Committee—Joseph Ryan.

The members of the division are all actively engaged in getting ready to entertain the delegates to the next State convention, which will meet at Ashland in September, 1910. Among the most active workers are State Treasurer Thomas M. Howard, Jr., and County President Thomas M. Howard, Sr. His friends claim that the County President is one of the truest Irishmen in the United States. Division President J. B. Burdiss is another hard worker. Early in January the Ashland division will initiate a large class and when the convention meets the division will be one of the largest in the State. Every man now in is trying to secure new members. The Ladies' Auxiliary is also doing good work in preparing to entertain their delegates to the State convention. All in all Hibernianism is booming at Ashland.

IRISH DARING.

Miss Shellah O'Neill Will Try to Fly Home.

The London correspondent of the Philadelphia North-American writes that Miss Shellah O'Neill, an Irish lady, is having a flying machine constructed, and intends to pay a "flying" visit to her home in Ireland about Christmas time. This is the same Miss O'Neill who recently startled Scotland Yard detectives by applying for a license to drive a taxicab in London.

The machine that is being constructed for Miss O'Neill is partly her own invention. Its framework is being made of Irish spruce. It will weigh only 200 pounds and will carry ten gallons of oil. During the flying trip Miss O'Neill will wear a close fitting cap, a jersey and knickerbockers.

"Nervous! Not a bit!" she said to an interlocutor. "A woman who can drive a big car through the thickest traffic in London is not going to be scared by a journey in midair. I mean to have a boat following me in case I should come down to grief in the Irish Sea, but am a strong swimmer and I have no fear at all."

CHARLES F. RATTERMAN DEAD.

Charles F. Ratterman, a very popular young man, died at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital Wednesday afternoon. He had been suffering from cancer of the liver. The deceased was twenty-five years old, and served for some time as a Deputy Sheriff. In the recent campaign Mr. Ratterman was the Democratic nominee for Constable in the Seventh Magisterial district, which is largely Republican, and was defeated by a small majority. After death his remains were removed to the family residence, 1115 South Sixth street. The funeral will take place from St. Louis Bertrand church at 9 o'clock this morning. The deceased is survived by his wife and an infant son, and by several brothers and sisters. Edward Ratterman, the funeral director, is one of the surviving brothers.

RECEIVES INSTRUCTION.

According to advices sent the New York World the Countess Granard, formerly Miss Beatrice Mills, of New York, is about to become a Catholic. She is now in retirement at Castle Forbes, County Longford, Ireland, for the winter, and is receiving instruction in Catholic doctrines. The cablegram says she will be baptized before Christmas.

FINANCIALLY SAFE.

At the recent semi-annual meeting of the Supreme Trustees of the Catholic Knights of America it was voted to invest an additional $80,000 in good securities. This shows that the financial affairs of the order are in good hands and ably managed.
